Federal Election 2008: Employers' Obligation to Provide Paid Time Off to Vote

Date: September 16, 2008

A federal election has been called for October 14, 2008. Under the Canada Elections Act, all employees who are electors – Canadian citizens who are 18 years of age or older as of the date of the election – are entitled to 3 consecutive hours on election day, during voting hours, to cast their votes. For Ontario employers located in the Eastern time zone, voting hours run from 9:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. For Ontario employers located in the Central time zone, voting hours run from 8:30 a.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Where an employee's hours of work prevent him or her from having the 3 consecutive voting hours required by the Act, the employer "shall allow the time for voting that is necessary to provide those three consecutive hours". The time off is paid. Where an employee has 3 consecutive hours that fall within the voting hours, but fall outside of his or her work hours, there is no obligation to provide paid time off from work.
