Human Resources Legislative Update

Ontario Government Prorogues Until After Fall 2011 Election

Date: June 2, 2011

On June 1, 2011, the Ontario government prorogued, thus ending the session until after the Fall 2011 election, which is scheduled for October 6. As a result, all outstanding business before the House, including all government and Private Members' Bills, expired on the Order Paper.