Ontario Introduces Bill 122, School Boards Collective Bargaining Act

Date: October 22, 2013

On October 22, 2013, the Ontario government introduced Bill 122, the School Boards Collective Bargaining Act, 2013, legislation that would, if passed, amend the collective bargaining regime governing Ontario school boards and teachers. The government also released a Backgrounder on Bill 122.

We are in the process of reviewing the proposed legislation, and a more detailed FTR Now discussing the implications of these changes for school boards in Ontario will be published on our website.
