Mofy is responsible for leading all aspects of the firm’s day-to-day finance operations. She is focused on streamlining processes and providing actionable analytics to support the firm’s priorities.

As part of the senior management team, Mofy provides financial analysis and operations insights to assist the firm in achieving business efficiencies. Prior to joining Hicks Morley, she worked with another boutique law firm, as well as firms in the manufacturing industry.