Tressa Teranishi is the Director of Business Development and Marketing at Hicks Morley. A creative and purposeful leader, she has more than two decades of experience in business development and marketing roles in the professional services industry.

Tressa has spent the majority of her career working at the “Big 4” accounting firms. She has a passion for uncovering client issues and using data and analytics to identify and target solutions to create unique and personalized client experiences.

As the Director of Business Development and Marketing, Tressa is responsible for initiating, supporting and iterating on a wide range of business development initiatives focused on growing the firm’s revenue and client base. She leads the firm’s business development and marketing function and manages a talented team that provides timely, practical and cost-effective support to the firm’s growth mandate.