

Human Resources Legislative Update

Federal Government Launches EI Consultations

Date: August 19, 2011

On August 18, 2011, the federal government announced the launch of Employment Insurance \("EI"\) rate-setting consultations, and released a related consultation paper.

The EI consultations are intended to enhance delivery of benefits, and increase overall premium stability.

Individuals and stakeholders may participate in the web-based consultation process online, or via email before November 30, 2011.