Parliament Prorogues until October 16th

Date: September 13, 2013

Upon the request of the Prime Minister, the Governor General officially prorogued Parliament today. The next session of Parliament is scheduled to begin on October 16, 2013, with a Speech from the Throne.

As described in our previous post – Parliament to be Prorogued – all Government Bills have “died on the Order Paper,” and can be reintroduced as new Bills or reinstated in the new session of Parliament if the House so decides. Private Members’ Bills will be automatically reinstated in the new session.
