

Lesley Campbell provides practical advice and representation to employers and management in both the private and public sectors on a wide range of labour, employment, and human rights issues such as grievances, wrongful dismissals, and claims of discrimination and harassment. Her practice includes arbitration advocacy, employment litigation and human rights proceedings.

Lesley joined Hicks Morley's Toronto office as an associate in 2020 after previously completing her articles and working as a general civil litigator at a Toronto litigation boutique. She graduated from law school at the University of Windsor in 2016 and was called to the Ontario Bar in 2017. Lesley also holds BA and MA degrees from Western University.

In addition to the practice of law, Lesley dedicates her time to a variety of community interests and programs including Lawyers Feed the Hungry, the Women's Legal Education and Action Fund, and Canadian Blood Services. Lesley also serves on the Board of Trafalgar Castle School. In her spare time she can be found watching almost any sport and geeking out on Canadian & U.S. politics.

Practice Areas

Employment Law Human Rights Labour Relations Litigation

Industries

Arts & Sports Education Healthcare Long-Term Care and Home Care Municipalities & Municipal Agencies Social Services

Memberships & Affiliations

Ontario Bar Association – Member (Labour & Employment Section)

Canadian Bar Association – Member

The Advocate's Society – Member

Director – Trafalgar Castle School Board of Directors

Select Publications & Presentations

“The Risks of Constructive Dismissal” Understanding in Ontario Employment Law, HRPAs: Peterborough and Thousand Islands Chapters (April 28, 2021)

“What will a return to work look like Part 1?” Ontario Bar Association (May 12, 2020)

Education

University of Windsor, J.D.

Western University, M.A.

Western University, B.A. (Hons.)